The Bunkers Experience Boomrock's new Beretta Shooting Fields

Come and experience "The Bunkers", Boomrock's new five stand sporting clay fields. The purpose built shelter and stands located south of the Lodge are set amongst tranquil native bush overlooking the Tasman Sea towards the South Island.

Guests will experience a variation of clay targets from two of the three fields. Each field offers a completely different shooting experience, with 5 hidden traps at each (a simulated duck, driven pheasant and grouse), these are ideal for group flurries if shooters are experienced. Shooting can be easily adjusted for beginners through to competition level and tuition is available from our shooting instructors.

"The Bunkers is without a doubt the most unique shooting environment that I have come across in my international career. I highly recommend a visit to The Bunkers for not only shooting enthusiasts but also to entertain corporate and private groups, as this is undoubtedly a world-class facility."
